About the Cook Ross Diversity Systems Map™

Creating a Strategic Whole Systems Diversity Plan by utilizing the Cook Ross Diversity Systems Map™, a tool for understanding, assessing, and developing a strategic diversity plan that impacts the entire organization, this course helps participants to understand the greater complexity of diversity and inclusion as it is applied to many areas of an organization. Not only will participants focus on how diversity and inclusion applies to their own areas but how it fits into the larger diversity and inclusion plan for the entire organization. [2-5 Day Training plus Individual Coaching Sessions / 4 hour Executive Roundtable / 2 hour Speaking Topic- Planning and facilitation by the experts at Cook Ross.
